Minimum wages

3. Manner of calculating the minimum rate of wages.—(1) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 6, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed on the day basis keeping in view the following criteria, namely:-

Sections 6,
6(5) and 67
(2) (a)

- (I) the standard working class family which includes a spouse and two children apart from the earning employee; an equivalent of three adult consumption units;
- (II) a net intake of 2700 calories per day per consumption unit;
- (III) 66 meters' cloth per year per standard working class family;

- (IV) housing rent expenditure to constitute 10 per cent of food and clothing expenditure;
- (V) fuel, electricity and other miscellaneous items of expenditure to constitute 20 percent of minimum wages; and
- (VI) expenditure for children education, medical requirement, recreation and expenditure on contingencies to constitute 25 percent of minimum wage;

(2) When the rate of wages for a day is fixed, then, such amount shall be divided by eight for fixing the rate of wages for an hour and multiplied by twenty- six for fixing the rate of wages for a month and in such division and multiplication, the factors of one-half and more than one-half shall be rounded as next figure and the factors less than one-half shall be ignored. In case of there are five working days in a working week, the hourly rate of minimum wages so calculated shall be used to derive the minimum wages for the day.

Sections
6(6), 67 (2)
(b) and 67
(2) (c)

4. Norms for fixation of minimum rate of wages. - (1) While fixing the minimum rate of wages under section 6, the State Government shall constitute a technical committee for the purpose of advising in respect of skill categorization of occupation, arduousness of work, hazardous occupations or processes and underground work and like other categorization, which shall consist of the following members, namely:-

- (i) The Labour Commissioner, UT Chandigarh - Chairman
 - (ii) The Assistant Labour Commissioner, UT, Chandigarh - Member Secretary
 - (iii) A representative from the Department of Skill Development, State Government and Entrepreneurship dealing with skill development. - Member
 - (iv) Two technical experts in wage determination as nominated by the State Government - Members
 - (v) Two representatives of the Employers Registered Associations - Members
 - (vi) Two representatives of the Worker's Registered Union - Members
- (2) The State Government shall, on the advice of the technical committee referred to in sub-rule (1), categorize the occupations of the employees into four categories that is to say unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled by modifying, deleting or adding any entry in the categorization of such occupations specified in Schedule A.
- (3) The technical committee referred to in sub-rule(1)shall, while advising the State Government under sub-rule (2), take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification frame work or other similar frame work for the time being formulated to identify occupations.
- (4) If an employee employed in any scheduled employment is not specifically mentioned by the name of its trade or job under any of the categories/classes in this notification or in earlier notifications fixing or revising minimum rate of wages, even then such employee shall be paid minimum wages of the category of the class where he can be most accurately placed. In case of disagreement about a category or classification of an occupation as mentioned in schedule A, the decision of the Technical committees constituted under sub-rule (1) of this rule shall be final.
- (5) Employees who have been working continuously in the same category (unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled, or highly-skilled) for more than five years shall be entitled to a 5% increase over the prevailing wages for that category, upon completion of every successive five-year period in the same category.
- (6) The Employer shall ensure that the employee is paid at least the minimum rate of wages prescribed under law for the establishment where the employee is employed, regardless of the Head Quarters/Branch of Employer.
- (7) Any increase or decrease in the published CPI (for UT, Chandigarh) will be uniformly applied to the whole area of UT, Chandigarh.

Section -7

5. Time Interval for revision of dearness allowance.—The Labour Commissioner, UT, Chandigarh shall, twice every year – before 1stApril and before 1stOctober – review and adjust the basic rate of wages, the cost-of-living allowance (COLA), and the cash-value of any concession on essential commodities (if applicable), based on the average Consumer Price Index (CPI) received for all regions of Chandigarh during the preceding six-month period. Such adjustments shall apply to employees whose wages are fixed at or linked to the minimum wages.

6. Components of Minimum Wages: - At the time of fixation of minimum wages, the components mentioned in the section 7(b) and (c) shall be taken into account at the time of fixation of minimum wages.

Section

7. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.—

(1) The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be comprised of eight hours of work and one or more intervals of rest which in total shall not exceed one hour. The State Government may, by notification, increase the interval period, keeping in view the category of industries/establishments and the working hours of a specific industry/establishment. However, where any such increase in interval(s) is provided, the overall working time shall be as per sub rule (2).

(2) The normal working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than twelve hours on any day.

(3) The provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be determined by the State Government.

8. Weekly day of rest. — (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed a day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as “the rest day”) which shall ordinarily be Sunday in case of six working days in a week. However in case there are less than six working days in a week it shall include Saturday and Sunday. But the employer may fix any other days of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that in six days working week or less than six days working week, as the case may be, the remaining days of the week shall be paid rest days for such employees.

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest days under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer in case of six days working week for a continuous period of not less than six days and in case of less than six days working week for a continuous period of the stipulated number of working days as the case may be.

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the days fixed as the rest day, and of any subsequent change in the rest day, before the change is effected, by display on a notice board to that effect or at the conspicuous place at the place of employment.

Explanation.— For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days specified in the first proviso, any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an attendance allowance without being provided with work, a day on which an employee is laid off with compensation under the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (Central Act No. 35 of 2020), and any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer during the six days immediately preceding the rest day, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

(2) No such employee shall be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has been, or will be, given a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the five days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made if it results in the employee working for more than ten consecutive days without a whole rest day.

(3) Where, in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, an employee works on a rest day and is given a substituted rest day on any one of the five days before or after the rest day, the substituted rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

(4) An employee shall be granted— (a) for the rest day, wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and

(b) where he works on the rest day and is given a substituted rest day, wages for—

(i) the rest day on which he worked, at overtime rates the normal rate of wages; and

(ii) the substituted rest day, at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where—

(i) the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been calculated by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty six; or

(ii) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been calculated by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such daily rate is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and

(iii) where the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, he shall be paid only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable at the overtime rate.

If any dispute arises as to whether the daily rate of wages has been calculated in accordance with this proviso, the officer appointed by the State Government through notification, having territorial jurisdiction, may decide the matter upon an application made to him, after giving the concerned parties an opportunity to make written representations.

Provided further that in the case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the State Government may determine from time to time, having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code for the employment.

Explanation: In this sub-rule, “next preceding day” means the last day on which the employee worked preceding the rest day or substituted rest day, as the case may be. Where the substituted rest day falls on the day immediately after the rest day, the “next preceding day” shall mean the last day on which the employee worked preceding the rest day.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of any more favorable terms to which an employee may be entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement, or contract of service. In such cases, the employee shall be entitled only to the more favorable terms.

Explanation: For the purposes of this rule, “week” means a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

9. Night shifts.—Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then,

Section 13 a. a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 7 shall, in this case mean a period of twenty-four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his/her shift ends; and

b. the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

10. The extent and conditions for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section

13.—In case of employees,—

(a) engaged in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented;

Sections 13 and 67 (2) (e) (b) engaged in work of the nature of preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the limits laid down for the general working in the employment concerned;

(c) whose employment is essentially intermittent;

(d) engaged in any work which for technical reasons has to be completed before the duty is over; and

- (e) engaged in a work which could not be carried on except at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces;

the number of hours of work of the employee which shall constitute a normal working day inclusive of one or more specified intervals and the spread over of the hours of work of the employee may exceed the number of hours as specified by general or special order, issued from time to time, under Rule 6.

41. Manner of dealing with the undisbursed dues under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 44.—(1) The amount referred to in sub rule (1) of rule 39 and 40 (hereinafter in this rule referred to as the amount) deposited with the Assistant Labour Commissioner, UT, Chandigarh having jurisdiction of UT, Chandigarh and shall be invested in the Central or State Government Securities or deposited as a fixed deposit in a scheduled bank.

(2) The Assistant Labour Commissioner, UT, Chandigarh will exhibit, as soon as maybe possible, a notice containing such particulars regarding the amount as he considers sufficient for information at least for fifteen days on the notice board and also publish such notice in any two local newspapers of vernacular language commonly understood in the area in which undisbursed wages were earned.

(3) Subject to the provision of sub-rule (4), the Assistant Labour Commissioner, UT, Chandigarh shall release the amount to the nominee or to that person who has claimed such amount, as the case may be, in whose favour such officer concerned has decided, after giving the opportunity of being heard, the amount to be paid.

(4) If the employee/workman or legal heir or nominee does not claim the amount within seven years from the Assistant Labour Commissioner, U.T, Chandigarh, such amount shall be treated as undisbursed amount being unclaimed for a period of seven years. Further, the State Government shall direct the Assistant Labour Commissioner from time to time to deal with such undisbursed amount.

CHAPTER VII

CHAPTER VIII INSPECTOR-CUM-FACILITATOR

Sections 51(2) 49. Inspection scheme.- (1) For the purposes of the Code and these rules, there shall be formulated an inspection scheme by the Labour Commissioner UT, Chandigarh with the approval of the State Government.

(2) In the inspection scheme referred to in sub-rule (1), apart from other structural facts, a number shall be specified in the scheme for each Inspector-cum-Facilitator and establishment.

50. Powers of Inspector-cum-Facilitator. The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be Inspector-cum-Facilitator for the purposes of this Act, and define the local limits within which they shall exercise their functions:

(a) enter, at all reasonable hours, with such assistants (if any), being persons in the service of the Government or any local or other public authority, as he thinks fit, any premises or place where employees are employed or work is given out to out-workers whether unskilled occupation, skilled occupation, semi-skilled occupation and highly skilled occupation in respect of which minimum rates of wages have been fixed under this Act, for the purpose of examining any register, record of wages or notices required to be kept or exhibited by or under this Act or rules made there under, and require the production thereof for inspection;

Sections 51(5) and 67 (2) (z)

(b) examine any person whom he finds in any such premises or place and who, he has reasonable cause to believe, is an employee employed therein or an employee to whom work is given out therein and require any person giving out-work and any out-workers, to give any information, which is in his power to give, with respect to the names and addresses of the persons to, for and from whom the work is given out or received, and with respect to the payments to be made for the work;

(c) seize or take copies of such register, record of wages or notices or portions thereof as he may consider relevant in respect of an offence under this Act which he has reason to believe has been committed by an employer; and

(d) supervise the payment of wages to persons employed in any factory or industrial or any other establishment;

(e) exercise such other powers as may be prescribed;

(f) Every Inspector-cum-Facilitator shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of THE BHARATIYA NYAYA SANHITA, 2023 (45 of 2023)

(g) Any person required to produce any document or thing or to give any information by an inspector-cum-facilitator under sub-rule (a) to (e) shall be deemed to be legally bound to do so within the meaning of section 210 and section 211 of THE BHARATIYA NYAYA SANHITA, 2023 (45 of 2023)

CHAPTER IX

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

51. Manner of holding enquiry under sub section (1) of Section 53—(1)

Section 53

When a complaint is filed before the officer appointed under sub-section (1) of section 53 (hereinafter in this rule referred to as the officer) in respect of the offences referred to in said sub-section either by an officer authorized for such purpose by the Central Government or by an employee aggrieved or a registered trade union registered under the Trade Unions Act, 1926 or an Inspector-cum-Facilitator, the officer, after considering such evidences as produced before him by the complainant, is of the opinion that an offence has been committed, shall issue summons to the offender on the address specified in the complaint fixing a date for his appearance.

(2) If the offender to whom the summons has been issued under sub rule (1) appears or is produced before the officer, he shall explain the offender the offence complained against him and if the offender pleads guilty, the officer shall impose penalty on him in accordance with the provisions of the Code and when the offender does not plead guilty, the officer shall take evidence of the witnesses produced by the complainant on oath and provide opportunity of cross examination of the witnesses so produced. The officer shall record the statement of the witnesses on oath and in cross examination in writing and take the documentary evidence on record.

(3) The officer shall, after the complainant's evidence is complete, provide opportunity of defence to the accused person and the witnesses produced by the accused shall be cross examined after their statements on oath by the complainant and documentary evidence in defence shall be taken on record by the officer.

(4) The officer shall after hearing the parties and considering the evidences both oral and documentary decide the complaint in accordance with the provisions of the Code.

52. The manner of imposing fine under sub-section (1) of section 56.—(1) An accused person desirous of making composition of offence under sub section (1) of Section 56 may make an application in form VI electronically or otherwise to the officer notified under said sub-section (1).

Sections
56 (1)
and 67
(2) (za)

(2) The Officer referred to in sub-rule (1), shall, on receipt of such application, satisfy himself as to whether the offence is compoundable or not under the Code and if the offence is compoundable and the accused person agrees for the composition, compromise the offence for a sum of fifty per cent of the maximum fine provided for such offence under the Code, to be paid by the accused within thirty days of the order of composition issued by such officer.

(3) Where the offence has been compromised under sub-rule (2) after the institution of the prosecution, then, the officer shall send a copy of such order made by him for intimation to the officer referred to in sub-section (1) of section 53 for needful action under sub-section (6) of section 56.

CHAPTER X

MISCELLANEOUS

53. Timely Payment of Wages.-Where employees are engaged in an establishment through a contractor, it shall be the duty of the contractor to disburse wages to such workers on or before the prescribed date of payment of wages in accordance with the provisions of Section 17, and to comply with all other statutory requirements such as EPF, ESI, Labour Welfare Fund, etc. Thereafter, the contractor shall raise a bill, supported by proof of compliance under the various labour legislations. Upon verification of the same, the Principal Employer shall release the payment to the contractor.

Provided that, in the event the contractor fails to make payment of wages within the prescribed period or makes short payment, the Principal Employer-i.e., the company, firm, association, or any other person who is the proprietor/owner of the establishment-shall be liable to make payment of the full wages or the unpaid balance, as the case may be, to the contract labour employed by the contractor. The Principal Employer may recover the amount so paid from the contractor, either by deduction from any amount payable to the contractor under any contract or as a debt recoverable from the contractor.

54. Responsibility for payment of minimum bonus.- Where in an establishment, the employees are employed through contractor and the contractor fails to pay minimum bonus to them under section 26, then, the company or firm or association or other person as referred to in the proviso to section 43 shall, on the written information of such failure, given by the employees or any registered trade union or unions of which the employees are members and on confirming such failure, pay such minimum bonus to the employees.

55. Repeal and saving -

- (i) The Punjab Payment of Wages Rules, 1937, as applicable to UT, Chandigarh;
- (ii) The Punjab Payment of Wages (Procedure) Rules, 1965, as applicable to UT, Chandigarh;
- (iii) The Punjab Minimum Wages Rules, 1950, as applicable to UT, Chandigarh;

Provided that any order issued or any action taken under the aforesaid rules so repealed, shall be deemed to have been issued or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.

By order and in the name of Administrator,
